

Sales

"The proficiency of our sales organisation is the key to our product placement"

We realise that a suppliers need for product placement is of paramount concern, so we always place protection before profitability, something we believe is unique within the industry. Over the last Ten years we have built up a portfolio of over 850 independant retail customers in the (UK, Mainland Europe, America, Middle East and India), ensuring your products are placed away from your core market. Our wealth of experience in buying and selling ensures that we will always find the right solution at the right price.

- No wholesalers supplied, therefore no wholesale margin required.
- Compact operation, limited overheads.
- Only sell into the independent retail discount sector.
- Non-commission driven sales force.

New Customers - If you would like to buy products from us call: 0191 4278080 or email: sales@kansandkandy.co.uk